Catalogue of Works

Aaron Soleci (Gibraltar, 1988)

Aaron Soleci lives and works as an Artist in Gibraltar.

"I admit that I have an addiction. An addiction to making and thinking about art, and I wish not to cure it. Sometimes I delve into different projects that excite me, constantly changing and experimenting with new ideas, subjects and styles. Other times I just simply work and see where it takes me. I consider Drawing an important part of my artistic process, where I can visualize where I'm at in the present moment and also as an aid to future projects, ideas. Although I produce a great number of paintings it is not my only medium to communicate ideas and thoughts. I tend to use anything as a possibility"
